

WILL BE $100,000 LEFT IN ROAD FUND

Full Report of Chief Engineer Halladay To Commission is Given

According to the annual report of Chief Engineer Halladay of the County Highway Commission, there will be about $100,000 left in the treasury after the 1913 miles of road, provided for in the original highway plans, have been constructed. Halladay's report, which was reviewed in the Register yesterday, follows in full, omitting one lengthy table:

Santa Ana, Cal., March 1, 1914.
Orange County Highway Commission,
Orange County, California,
Gentlemen:

One year has elapsed since active work began on the construction of Orange County's first improved highways. One year ago the first parties were put into the field to make the surveys which served as a basis for the plans and estimates upon which to invite bids for road improvement.

As the movement for improved highways, now materializing in finished work, was initiated in the early part of 1910, it seems proper to briefly review this part of the work of the Highway Commission for the information of those who may not know the reasons for the delay in the beginning of good roads work in this county.

The Highway Commission held its first meeting on March 8, 1910, selected its engineers the latter part of April, at which time its members were M. M. Crookshank, W. H. Burnham and Richard Egan, and in May began investigations and estimates for its report and recommendation to the Board of Supervisors. This work was completed and a report adopted September 16, 1910.

In the meantime, the matter of a bond issue of $18,000,000 for a state system of highways had been presented to the people and was to be voted upon in November, 1910. Under the terms of this proposed law, the state might include any county highway in its system without compensation to the county therefor. It appeared certain that one of the State Highways, as generally described in the proposed act, would follow the lines of Los Angeles road and San Diego road as selected by the Orange County Highway Commission, and therefore more than $400,000 worth of the proposed county highway system would be taken care of by the state. As Orange county could hardly expect more of the State Highway it would, in effect, not receive one cent of return on its part of the bonded indebtedness for state highways. On this account it was decided to await the outcome of the movement for state highways.

The law providing for state roads carried, and very soon thereafter there began an active campaign to have the coast state highway from Los Angeles to San Diego located via Riverside instead of Santa Ana and the coast proper. It was not until July, 1912, that definite assurance was obtained as to the location of the state road through this county and the Highway Commission felt justified in formulating a revised report. A final report was adopted September 16, 1912, and submitted to the Board of Supervisors. This report was presented to the citizens of the county November 4 and approved by them. The authorized bonds, in the amount of $1,270,000, were sold January 8, 1913.

No money was available therefrom until the latter part of March, but with the approval of the Board of Supervisors, the engineering department of the Highway Commission was organized and surveys begun on March 2, 1913.

Preliminary Work
It was unfortunate that the county could not have begun preparations for road construction three or four months earlier so as to obtain the fullest use of the dry season. This the law forbade in that the Board of Supervisors had no authority to employ other funds in this work.

With money secured for the work there was immediate demand for the earliest possible beginning of construction, and having begun surveys and preparation of plans, the Commission set itself to the task of organization and preparation of other means of construction. At this time Mr. W. H. Burnham resigned on account of ill health and Mr. D. C. Pixley succeeded him, the Commission being otherwise as first constituted.

The report submitted to the people called for macadam roads, but reserved the right to adopt a better type of construction if within the means of the county. The Commission, therefore, again took under advisement the type of pavement to be employed and, finding much of advantage in the concrete road, and also finding that the system of roads outlined in its report could be built with the money provided therefor, adopted the concrete road as the standard.

The next step was the determination of a suitable width of pavement. A consideration of traffic conditions led the Commission to the conclusion that roads of importance should have pavements not less than 18 feet wide and that the most important should be 20 feet wide. The act under which it was working, however, set 16 feet as the maximum; therefore, to give effect to its conclusions, it was necessary to secure an amendment permitting an increase of width to a maximum of 20 feet. Through the co-operation of the Board of Supervisors and the district attorney this was accomplished.

The Commission also adopted the policy of furnishing the more important materials of construction, namely, cement, sand, gravel and broken stone, for two important reasons: first, because these materials could be bought and delivered at rates more advantageous to the county, and second because there would thereby be less incentive on the part of the contractor to do inferior work.

It was necessary, therefore, to seek suitable supplies of sand and stone on each of the railways serving the county, and to obtain such materials of construction by contract or by the installation of gravel handling plants. After an investigation of local and outside sources of sand and stone, it was decided to erect a plant at McPherson where construction material could be obtained for distribution over the Southern Pacific lines and to contract for such materials as had to be delivered at Santa Fe and Pacific Electric stations. These plans were carried out very successfully and the county has obtained these materials, through the business acumen of its Commission, at lower prices than obtained by any other public body or private parties in this part of the state so far as I have been able to learn. The Commission was equally successful in its efforts to secure cement and finally a contract was obtained for 100,000 barrels at $1.35 f.o.b. cars at Riverside.

The matter of freight rates was also taken up and the rates granted to Los Angeles county on sand, gravel and broken stone were readily obtained. Rates on cement were not so easily adjusted, but some time after construction started, substantial reductions were given and made retroactive from the beginning of the work.

All of this preparatory work, except the completion of the county gravel plant at McPherson, was practically concluded by the time the first highways were ready for advertising. During the same period, your engineer, in addition to his other duties, prepared specifications and contracts required in the preparatory work above referred to and also the form of contract and specifications under which the highway work is being done.

Surveys and Office Work

The surveys are designed to locate the centerline of the proposed roads, to recover the monuments, posts, etc., in the road, thus preserving property lines; they are also designed to provide the data necessary to accurately estimate the work to be done in the construction of a finished road. The office work has to do with the making of plans, profiles and cross-sections from the data of the surveys, the making of details of the proposed work, and an estimate of its cost. This work is complete when the necessary information is in the office and the office force has prepared the plans and estimates for the contemplated work.

In the year which has elapsed, the surveys and more than two-thirds of the office work preliminary to construction have been completed on the whole system, now amounting to 198.28 miles. I refer you to Table I for more detailed information concerning this part of the work.

There has been expended to date, for surveys $6740.48, and for office work $5555.99. The average cost per mile for surveys has been $62.62 and the average cost of office work completed, per mile of road, has been $60.32. If the cost of field and office work on that part of Riverside road in the Santa Ana canyon be deducted from the above totals and the average cost per mile of the remainder obtained we have a cost per mile, for surveys $45.29 and for office work $56.27. In Table II is given the cost of this work on each road. In this connection I wish to say that the expense of this part of the work of the engineering department compares very favorably with the cost of similar work in California or other states.

Construction
Our first work was advertised June 4, 1913, or three months after the organization of the engineering department, and consisted of 3.24 miles of Orangethorpe avenue and 5.13 miles of Huntington Beach road. To date there are contracts covering 42.74 miles of road and bids will be received March 4 for the 10.43 miles of Laguna road. We also have under construction Talbert bridge, a concrete structure 300 feet long, crossing the Santa Ana river.

There have been laid 19.88 miles of concrete pavement, of which 7 miles have been accepted as fully completed. Of the work completed or under contract, 9.56 miles have pavement 20 feet wide, 50.73 miles have pavement 18 feet wide, and 2.45 miles of Riverside road are not to be paved. With the exceptions of short sections made thicker on account of poor foundations, the pavement is of four inches thickness.

With the arrangement for sand and gravel, already described, no difficulty was had in supplying material for paving, but on account of a sequence of misfortune suffered by the company furnishing broken stone, we have been much delayed in the work of surfacing pavement with asphaltic cover. The complete destruction of its plant on the Pacific Electric railway by fire in October, and close-downs on account of washouts culminating at the time of the February flood, in almost complete destruction of its plant on the Santa Fe, crippled this contractor to a point where he had a very small output of the grade of rock required for our work.

Delays from the causes above noted in conjunction with the very unfavorable weather conditions during the winter, have seriously delayed the work. There is every reason to believe that our contract arrangements and our own capacity at the McPherson plant will admit of much greater progress during this construction season.

It is the opinion of your engineer supported by his observation of the work to date, that the type of road adopted by you, viz., a concrete base or slab with a protective cover of heavy asphaltic oil and broken stone, is the best available at the cost, and that, if properly maintained, these roads will carry with ease such wagon or truck loads as are now customary. It is also his opinion that 18 feet width of pavement is adequate for nearly all conditions from the fact that roads of this width, some time in use, show little travel on the earth shoulders.

Cost of Roads

Orange county began its work of highway improvement at a very favorable time. Times were dull and many contractors were seeking contracts; business was poor and material men in all lines were eager for business. As a consequence, sand, stone and cement were bought cheaply, and with the possible exception of the first jobs let, contract prices have been low. The table shows the cost, by general items, of the improvement comprised in the contracts during the year.

Where the work has been completed the table shows the cost as taken from the accounts of the office. Where the job is not finished, the cost of such items as are unknown is computed, and to the total cost thus determined, five per cent has been added to cover contingencies. In this manner I find that the total cost of the work contracted to date will be $412,177.53 and deducting the estimated cost of the bridge, the cost of the 42.74 miles of road will be $396,197.74, or an average of $9,269.95 per mile.

Bonds of the par value of $1,270,000 were authorized for building this system of good roads. These bonds commanded a premium of $28,825, and interest accrued on bonds, taken some time after the sale, to the amount of $41,047.94. We have, therefore, a total of $1,339,876.94 for road work. Deducting from this sum the estimated cost of the work already contracted, there remains $917,699.41 to pay for building 65.54 miles of road and meeting general expenses not as yet distributed and charged against different roads. I think it is safe to say, making liberal allowance for higher contract prices, that when the system of highways provided for in the bond issue have been completed, there will be left in the Highway fund over $100,000, which will be available for additional roads.

Respectfully submitted,
DANIEL HALLADAY,
Highway Engineer.

JOHNSON'S ARM TOO EXPENSIVE TO CRANK AUTOS

The Washington Club had Walter Johnson's right arm insured for $100,000. Walter's uncle, Dr. J. H. Johnson, owns an auto of a vintage prior to the adoption of self-starters, and upon a recent visit to nephew Walter's farm, near Coffeyville, Kas., the speed king essayed to crank the doctor's machine. A looking bystander snapped the picture and sent it back to Washington. The coffers of the telegraph company were swelled that day by a vigorous message to Walter to take no more such chances.—Sporting News.

IF BACK HURTS USE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat if Kidneys Feel
Like Lead or Bladder
Bothers

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Advertisement.

HAGGLING AS TO SALUTE RETURN

Huerta Quibbles as to Way; Bryan Cables Salute to Be in Strict Naval Form

HUERTA EAGER FOR WAR WITH UNITED STATES

Believes Trouble With America Would Solidify Factions to His Support

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The future of the Mexican situation will be decided this afternoon if Huerta, the Mexican dictator, after receiving American acceptance of the proposition to return his salute to the flag in preparation for the Tampico affair, imposed further conditions, which, it is stated on good authority would not be met. The State Department is quiet regarding the contents of another note sent to Mexico City, but it is understood that Huerta has been informed that America refused to make any further concessions.

DICTATOR WOULD MAKE HIS OWN CONDITIONS

WASHINGTON, April 17.—A new complication arose today, Huerta haggling over the means of returning the Mexican salute to the flag. Two stories are current. One that Huerta insisted that the Americans should return the salute, gun for gun, alternately; the other is that the federal commander at Tampico be received with a marine guard aboard the American warship replying. It is stated that Secretary Bryan has cabled Charge d'Affaires O'Shaughnessy that he will insist on firing a salute only in conformity with strict naval custom, the acknowledgement following the last Mexican gun. The cabinet held a long session today and while it was in progress Secretary Bryan received several messages, but refused to give them publicity.

Besides seeing him at the cabinet meeting, Secretary Bryan today had a personal conference with the president. The secretary had received an important message from Charge d'Affaires O'Shaughnessy which he desired to discuss with the president. Secretary Tamm is authority for the statement that Huerta's demands regarding the manner of carrying the salute is not vital. He said he believed that matters would adjust themselves peacefully and honorably.

HUERTA DESIRES WAR WITH U. S., SAYS DISPATCH

[By United Press Correspondent.] MEXICO CITY, April 17.—General Huerta wants the United States to declare war against Mexico. This has been the object of his negotiations throughout the entire Tampico incident. He has been almost in constant conference with his chief of staff, General Carranza, who has been known today that he wants war with the United States because he believes it would solidify the Mexicans in support of his otherwise doomed administration.

The above message, coded, was received at the New York office of the United Press today from a staff correspondent at Mexico City, who has been in close touch with the situation for a year. It was necessarily brief because it is impossible to carry details on account of censorship. This is the first important news dispatch from Mexico City since the Tampico incident.

MUTUAL SALUTE LATEST PLAN AT MEXICO CITY

MEXICO CITY, April 17.—(Censored.) "I expect the Tampico affair to be adjusted before sunset," was the statement made to the United Press by Foreign Minister Rojas. "Mr. O'Shaughnessy and I have arranged an agreement which he has submitted to his government. We are now awaiting a reply from Washington which I believe will end the difference of opinion. A mutual salute is the basis of the proposed agreement."

JAMESTOWN RACES END: MAY BE LAST MEETING

NORFOLK, Va., April 17.—The spring meet of the Jamestown Jockey Club closed here this afternoon with a special card of "farewell" events. Many horsemen expressed the belief that this might be the last meeting on the splendid little track near the old exposition grounds. There is an anti-betting law in force in Virginia. Test cases have been brought at every meet for the last few years, but nearly always they have been thrown out of court on technical grounds. A test case made shortly after the opening here was expected by many horsemen to be decided otherwise. There were only fifteen days in the present meet. Most of the stables here are going to Havre de Grace.

Santa Ana Editor and World's Press Congress

J. P. Baumgartner, of the Register, today received notice of his appointment by President John Clyde Oswald, of New York, as a member of a committee of five, to represent the National Editorial Association, of the United States, in the matter of the World's Press Congress to be held in San Francisco during the spring months of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. The chairman of this committee is Walter Williams, dean of the School of Journalism of the Missouri University, who is now on his way to Honolulu, from Yokohama. Dean Williams is returning from a trip around the world, during which he has been studying journalism throughout Great Britain, Europe and the Orient, and will arrive in San Francisco about May 5. He planned to meet Mr. Baumgartner in San Francisco April 17, for a conference in regard to the World's Press Congress, but was unable to cover his Australian itinerary in time to do so. Had Mr. Williams arrived in time to do so, he and his family would have toured California and visited Santa Ana as Mr. Baumgartner's guests, and would have accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Baumgartner to Houston, Texas, next week to attend the annual convention of the National Editorial Association, of which both

MAYOR MITCHEL SAY THAT LIGHT DESERTED HIS WIFE

Bullet Missed Mark; Struck and Wounded Corporaition Counsel Polk

MITCHEL OVERPOWERED HIS WOULD-BE ASSASSIN

Dragged Him Into City Hall to Police Hands—New York Greatly Excited

NEW YORK, April 17.—An elderly man, who refused to divulge his name, today attempted to assassinate Mayor Mitchell. He fired as the mayor was leaving the City Hall. The bullet missed Mayor Mitchell, striking Corporation Counsel Polk, who was accompanying the mayor, on the chin and seriously wounding him.

Mayor Mitchell leaped from the automobile he had just entered and overpowered the man. An immense crowd gathered as the mayor dragged the prisoner into the City Hall and turned him over to the police.

The underclothing of the mayor's assailant bore the name of "David Rose." His clothing was tattered and he wore a celluloid collar. He seemed to be the victim of hallucinations.

When the mayor emerged from the room where Counsel Polk had been taken he said the wound was an ugly one but probably not fatal. He was unable to state definitely until the surgeons had made a thorough examination of it. He ordered that Mrs. Polk be notified, instructing that she be told the wound was not serious. He then returned to the police station.

Mayor Mitchell took personal charge of the situation at the police station. He directed the desk sergeant, telling him what ambulance to call to take Counsel Polk to the hospital, and giving other directions. Police lines were thrown about the City Hall and police station but the officers had a difficult time in keeping the crowd in check. Rumors spread that the mayor or had been killed.

For half an hour the police investigated the would-be assassin, but the only statement they could secure was that he repeated "Everything is all right." In his pocket was a jumbled letter addressed to Mayor Armstrong of Pittsburgh, which read: "Armstrong you've done your part and you've. We will do our part soon and you will see what part it will be."

Passer-by Also Shot

The man later gave his name as Joseph Saloschein. He said he was dissatisfied with the mayor's handling of the unemployed problem. Others said he is a disappointed office seeker. H. Duncan, a passer-by, was also struck by the bullet fired at Mayor Mitchell. He was walking by Saloschein when he fired. The bullet, striking his arm, glanced into Polk's jaw. Several of Polk's teeth are knocked out. At the hospital the surgeons stated the wound was not dangerous.

Later Saloschein gave his age as 70. The letter in his pocket addressed to Mitchell was a disconnected and rambling arraignment of Col. Goethals with frequent references to the recent general controversy over his services upon the completion of the Panama Canal.

Mr. Williams and Mr. Baumgartner are past presidents. They would then have proceeded to Columbia, Mo., where Mr. Baumgartner is one of the speakers for "Journalism Week," the big annual event of the Missouri University School of Journalism.

Mr. and Mrs. Baumgartner will make the trip as planned, leaving next Tuesday morning, and will meet Mr. Williams in Columbia when he arrives home.

Mr. Williams writes Mr. Baumgartner very confidently regarding the outlook for the World's Press Congress. In a letter received several weeks ago, he says:

"I have extended invitations to press organizations and individual journalists in all the European countries where I have traveled, and will do so in Australia, India, China and Japan. * * * My acquaintance with journalists abroad, formed when I traveled for the Louisiana Purchase (St. Louis) Exposition as press commissioner, and the fact that I am making a study of the world's journalism, gives me exceptional opportunities for this service."

It was Mr. Baumgartner who first suggested the World's Press Congress to the exposition management and secured the co-operation of Mr. Williams, and he is naturally much gratified at the prospects of success.

MAN WHO POSED HERE AS PHILANTHROPIST REACHES END OF ROPE

Los Angeles Police Say His Wife is in Oconto, Wis., in Want

IS NO WARRANT FOR BEATING BOARD BILL

Los Angeles Police Say His Wife is in Oconto, Wis., in Want

A letter found yesterday on Louis La Clair, alias Light, who posed in Santa Ana as a philanthropist and friend of mankind, by the Los Angeles police led them to believe that the man had jumped a board bill at the Allerton Hotel in Santa Ana. Inquiry at the hotel today, however, brought out the fact that La Clair, or Light, sometimes styled by himself "the Millionaire hobo," had given a note to the hotel people for the amount he owed, and that the letter found on him was merely a request, not a demand, for a payment on the note. Mr. Holt of the Allerton has faith in La Clair.

La Clair represented that he has been traveling from ocean to ocean spreading the gospel of prison and child labor reform. He was in Santa Ana eight or nine months, staying at the Allerton. While here he published a book called "The Modern Hobo."

After La Clair had been taken into custody, according to a story printed in the Examiner today, it was discovered that he was wanted in Oconto, Wis. for wife desertion. The Los Angeles police received dispatches to the effect that La Clair had a wife and family who were in need in the eastern city. The Examiner says:

"Detectives say they have received information to the effect that La Clair has been making a house-to-house canvass, asking for money to forward his 'reform campaigns,' and has been using a book he calls 'The Modern Hobo,' as an excuse for calling on the people. Information that he was building many of these people for summing ranging from $1 to $5 resulted in his arrest and later it was discovered he is wanted in the East."

In a book that La Clair has been selling he announces that he has been getting information for the "National Industrial Reform Bureau." He claims to be a "millionaire tramp," though the police say he is penniless, and also has insisted that he is making the trip "merely in the cause of humanity."

The Santa Ana police have had no criminal complaints from local people against La Clair.

It is reported, however, that the man, who went here only by the name of Lewis Light, got considerable money on his representation that he was doing preliminary work for a great reform league of some kind. He peddled his literary effort from house to house. At one time he endeavored to get the Register to print one of his appeals for contributions to the alleged protective league that he represented that he was fathering for the benefit of down-trodden mankind. The Register did not take kindly to the scheme, and though importuned by some of the persons Light had interested, declined to see that Light and the plan presented were worthy of the paper's support.

HOW CHAMP CLARK GOT ONE JOB AS TEACHER

STOCKTON, Cal., April 17.—How Speaker of the House Champ Clark, away back in 1874, applied to him for a position as teacher in a small village school and got it, was told here today by W. N. Rutherford, prosecuting attorney of Stockton. At that time Rutherford was superintendent of schools of Randolph county, Missouri.

"One winter afternoon in 1874," said Rutherford, "there was a timid knock at my office door. Opening the door I beheld a well-dressed young man who had the unmistakable appearance of a teacher."

"I should like to know," the young man asked, "if you have any vacancy that I could fill. I have had some little experience as a teacher."

"What is your name?" I asked.

"Champ Clark, sir," was the immediate answer.

"I was so impressed with the business-like manner and tone of the young man that I decided to give him a position immediately. I assigned him to a village school some distance from the county seat and he made good in a hurry."

FELICE LYNE LAUGHS AT $1,000,000 SLANDER SUIT

NEW YORK, April 17.—Sued for a million dollars by Oscar Hammerstein for alleged slander, Miss Felice Lyne, the young prima donna in grand opera, arrived here yesterday after a trip around the world to defend herself against the charge that she called the impresario a "dead duck" and other unsavory names, as he said she did. She laughed at the prospect of facing the suit.

TWO ROBINSONS MIX WITH TWO COOPERS, AND ONE OF THE ROBINSONS IS STABBED

Accused Man Says He Used Knife Only After Revolver Snapped at His Stomach

Last night about 8 o'clock at the old Torrey ranch on East Seventeenth street, near Holt avenue, Herman Cooper stabbed Charles Robinson twice. Cooper says he used his knife only after Robinson had made an attempt to shoot him.

Robinson is in the Santa Ana Hospital with a stab wound that is two inches long and extends well into the lung two inches below the collarbone. He also had a four-inch slash wound on one hip.

There are two stories of the affair. In that told by the Robinsons, Cooper was the aggressor. He dashed at Peter J. Robinson when Charles stepped in and was stabbed. In that told by Herman and James Cooper, Charles Robinson seized Herman by one arm and held a revolver close to him. The revolver was snapped several times before Herman used his knife to free himself.

P. J. Robinson has contracts to care for a number of orchards around Tustin. He has the old Torrey ranch rented. Herman Cooper, wife's place and mother had the house on the place rented from Robinson, and has worked for Robinson. He says that he had been warned that Robinson would beat him out of his pay if he could, and last night over the telephone he told Robinson that he wanted his pay, $22, by noon today, as he was going to move. He says Robinson told him he would pay him when he got good and ready. Cooper had a team of mules belonging to Robinson, and he said he ought to keep the mules until he got his pay.

Some time after that P. J. and Charles, who works for P. J., Mrs. P. J. Robinson and a man named Simmons, who works for P. J. Robinson, drove into the Cooper yard. In the meantime, James Cooper, who has been a trusted employee of U. & S. Stevens of Tustin for five or six years, having charge of a pumping station, had arrived to visit his mother, who is a cripple.

From the arrival the two stories differ.

The Robinson story is that Charles had a revolver in his pocket, but did not show it until after he was stabbed.

FOUR PERSONS HURT AS AUTO TURNS OVER

In the overturning of an automobile between Santa Ana and Greenville station on the road to Newport Beach, E. T. Mater and his wife and Plummer Bruns and Miss Bruns were all seriously injured.

Plummer Bruns was taken to the Santa Ana Hospital, and is evidently seriously injured. At the time of going to press he had not been seen by a physician, having just arrived.

Mater, the druggist, is badly shaken up and may have broken ribs. Miss Bruns has a broken arm. They are at the Mater home with Dr. Robertson in charge. Mrs. Mater at 3:15 had not been brought in from Greenville at that time, but it was stated that she had one leg broken.

BIG FIGHT DRAWS CROWD TO 'FRISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—Ritchie and Murphy both claim to be in perfect condition for tonight's battle of twenty rounds for the world's lightweight championship. Ritchie today continued to be a ten to four favorite in the betting, with even money that Murphy will not last twenty rounds.

Murphy rose at 7:30 this morning and took a long rest. He planned to spend the day at his training camp. Ritchie rose at 9, and walked after breakfast. He planned to attend a ball game this afternoon and to have dinner at 5 o'clock.

Practically every train today brought an out-of-town fight delegation. Reno sent a big crowd. Tom McCarrey and Freddie Welsh led the Los Angeles delegation. Promoter Coffroth said every reserved seat had been sold. He predicted the biggest house in recent years, and is certain the house will be worth $40,000.

OUTLOOK FOR TROUBLE IN MEXICO

Possibilities Great for Real Difficulty When Villa Reaches Capital

DANGER TO FOREIGNERS IS THEN ANTICIPATED

Fleet Will Not Be Recalled—Additional Warships to Be Dispatched

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The Tampico incident will be disposed of as soon as the proposed salutes are exchanged, but the possibility of trouble in Mexico remains great, according to general opinion held in administrative circles today. Trouble is anticipated at the latest when General Villa reaches Mexico City. Military experts figure this will be in about two weeks. It is believed his arrival will be attended with danger to foreign lives and property. With this in mind, the fleet, now en route to Tampico probably will not be withdrawn, but wait at a convenient location in order to be ready in event of trouble. In addition, the battleships Rhode Island, Virginia and Georgia, now in Charleston navy yard, will be sent to join the fleet.

The administration spokesmen made it apparent there will be no further argument with either the federals or the rebels, and any further embarrassing situations will be handled promptly, firmly and forcibly if necessary. "Things are encouraging," said Secretary Bryan today, "but unfinished." It is announced that a further exchange of dispatches between the State Department and General Huerta will be necessary before the salutary ceremonies take place. Secretary Bryan is taking up with General Carranza today the expulsion of the Spanish citizens from Chihuahua and Torreón, with the object of restoration of confiscated property.

NEW GOLD STRIKE

SAN BERNARDINO, April 17.—A gold strike has been reported from the Slate Range district, fourteen miles from Boron Lake. The strike was made by John Andre and M. M. Gilbern. An assay from a sample of the ore brought here Wednesday shows a test of $95 to $98 per ton. The ledge is sixty-five feet in width.

WOMAN IN STUPOR RESULT OF SEEING STAGE HYPNOTISM

ORANGE, April 17.—Mrs. Barr, who lives at the Ansforth apartments, is in a stupor as the result of hypnotic hysteria. All attempts to bring her to herself have failed.

Last evening she attended a hypnotist's performance at a local theater. The hypnotist had a number of boys on the stage. They imagined they were eating strawberries, and got an awful stomach-ache. Mrs. Barr, in the audience, got a sympathetic wave, and went under the spell. She suffered from stomach-ache, and unlike the boys, failed to come out from under the influence.

She was taken home in a kind of stupor. Two doctors were called. The hypnotist was sent for, but he failed to be of benefit. The doctors managed to get her partly aroused, but the woman cannot sustain consciousness. The woman's relatives are greatly worried, but the doctors think she will revive soon.

JIM AND MACK STILL BACHING AT BERRYDALE

Partners for Over Third of a Century Are Fast
Friends Yet

BERRYDALE, April 16.—Who among the older residents of Orange county does not know or has not heard of the "Two Bachelors," Jim and Mack? They are true and typical pioneers of the Western states. Few know them by their legal names, James H. Alford and James T. Megath, but just mention the "old bachelors of Berrydale" and recognition is instant.

Both of these interesting personages have passed three score and ten, the allotted span of life, and each now yearns to visit scenes of his early life in the East. James T. Megath or "Mack" came from Virginia near Washington, D. C., and as soon as he disposes of his interests here, contemplates making a visit to his sister, who still lives there.

He came west into Texas in the early '70's, and then to California. As he sat in his ranch home surrounded by a splendidly matured grove of English walnut trees, comprising 29 acres, to a Register correspondent, Mack grew reminiscent and told of some interesting experiences. When asked how and where he met his partner, Jim, Mack told of being at Compton away back in 1877, getting ready a 70-acre piece of ground for corn. He needed a man badly when Jim, just from Texas, came along and Mack put him to work and for his pay gave him half the crop. From that time on there was a mutual liking and understanding between them. As Mack says: "To this day each attends strictly to his own business." For nine years following the year '77, they ranched in Santa Barbara county, then came to Orange county, where for seventeen consecutive years they have engaged in the business of hay baling. In this way becoming acquainted with most of the pioneer residents of the county. Mack tells of having baled more than 30 tons of hay on the present site of Bolsa, and of having baled 835 tons of barley hay in one place on the Bolsa mesa without ever moving the plant.

Mack sighed heavily as he recounted the losses—those who forgot to pay their baling bills. Notwithstanding, Jim and Mack have garnered their share of this world's goods and are comfortably fixed for a rainy day, should it come. For more than 33 years they have lived in their present location, at the junction of the Berrydale, Anaheim and Garden Grove roads. Their ranch is kept in splendid condition. The walnut trees bear heavily providing a sure fixed income. Some old and massive apparatus for haying operations occupy a conspicuous position in the front yard in direct contrast to a pretty rose garden adjacent, proving that Jim and Mack have aesthetic tastes, yet doubtless they both prize the old, rusted, worn out machinery because it was their youthful playthings, as hay baling is a joy, you know, to some.

The infirmities of age are slowly creeping on these two respected citizens of Berrydale, and many of the readers of the Register will rejoice to know that in the sunset of their lives Jim and Mack as bachelors have no regrets.

Just plain partners were Jim and Mack. Who stuck together through thick and thin. With nary a skirt about with a whip to crack. Or my story otherwise might have been.

COUNTY FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

Club Women of County Meet at Placentia With Good Results

The second semi-annual convention of the Orange County Federation of Women's Clubs was held at Placentia on Thursday, April 16. The Round Table Club of Placentia was hostess, and royally entertained the Federation in their beautiful and commodious club house, which was artistically decorated in a color scheme of pink. The mantel was banked with a mass of pink roses.

The meeting was called to order at 10:45 by the President, Mrs. Ida F. Dutton, of Anaheim. In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Geo. S. Smith of Santa Ana, Mrs. A. J. Lawton was appointed to act as secretary. The convention opened by the singing of America, followed by an address of welcome by Mrs. J. P. Des Grange, president of the hostess club. Response for the Federation was made by Mrs. Dutton, and response for the delegates by Mrs. C. E. Chamberlain of Anaheim.

The following were appointed as the resolution committee: Mrs. Geo. Terry, Anaheim; Mrs. G. W. Sherwood, Fullerton; Mrs. P. L. Tople, Santa Ana.

Fifteen minute talks were given by Mrs. G. P. Hill and Mrs. F. J. Rogers of Santa Ana, on County Parent-Teacher Association and County W. C. T. U. work.

There are twenty Parent-Teacher associations in the County Federation, and nine in the city of Santa Ana. Mrs. Rogers told of the splendid work the W. C. T. U. is doing.

The convention adjourned and a meeting of the executive board was held following the adjournment, at which time several matters of importance were discussed, viz.: The advisability of the Federation working to establish a county library for Orange county; the matter of adopting a color for the Federation, and the continuation of the committee appointed at a previous board meeting to compile and have printed a book list for the benefit of the club members. The executive board adjourned for the noon luncheon which was served on the stage of the club house. The table appointments and decorations were very pretty.

After the meeting was called to order again, the following recommendations were adopted: Federation color to be orange; to have the executive board act as a committee to investigate the county library question.

Mrs. W. L. Deimling of Santa Ana, department chairman of press, gave a report of her work. Mrs. E. L. Quinn, department chairman of civics, told of the civics work being done in her department, and Mrs. A. J. Lawton, chairman of the civic sub-committee on anti-fly campaign, outlined the plans for carrying on that work. An invitation from the Woman's Club of Fullerton for the annual convention in October to be held at Fullerton was unanimously accepted.

The president named the following to serve on the maternity cottage committee: First supervisorial district, Mrs. A. J. Lawton, Santa Ana; second district, Mrs. Cloyes, Garden Grove; third district, Mrs. C. C. Chapman, Placentia; fourth district, Mrs. J. K. Paxton, Orange; fifth district, Mrs. W. W. Wilson, East Newport; member at large, Mrs. W. L. Deimling, Santa Ana.

Mrs. A. J. Lawton gave a report of the work done at a committee meeting held on March 12, at Santa Ana, at which time plans were drawn for the cottage and submitted to Fred K. H. Eley, architect, for the buildings on the Orange county farm. The plans which Mr. Eley had finished, also a map of the county farm, were on exhibition at the February meeting, giving the ladies an idea of the convenience and beauty of the whole arrangement. The thanks of the Federation are due to Mr. Eley for his help and interest in the matter.

Mrs. W. L. Deimling gave a brief outline of the plans for continuing the work. Mrs. Baurhyte of Los Angeles was introduced and gave a very entertaining report of the Los Angeles maternity cottage. Upon vote of the Federation it was decided that the next southern district convention would be held in Santa Ana. The Orange County Federation of Women's Clubs to be the hostess.

The report of the credential committee showed 14 clubs represented; present, 47 delegates and 12 presidents, and a number of visitors; in all more than a hundred.

The following were elected as a nominating committee to report at the annual meeting in October: Mrs. Geo. Terry, Anaheim; Mrs. Anna Gale, Santa Ana; Mrs. Nemo, Placentia; Mrs. A. J. Lawton, Santa Ana; Mrs. Cloyes, Garden Grove.

Roll call of clubs showed the following clubs represented, and two-minute reports were given by the president or delegate: Anaheim Ebell, Mrs. Tipton, president; Tuesday Afternoon Club, Garden Grove, Mrs. Arkey, president; Woman's Club, Huntington Beach, Mrs. Newell, vice-president; Ebell Club, East Newport, Mrs. G. H. Kellogg, president; Ebell, Santa Ana, Mrs. A. J. Lawton, president; Woman's Club, Santa Ana, Mrs. B. Uttley, president; Woman's Civics Club, Santa Ana, Mrs. Flora Pyle, president; American Woman's League, Santa Ana, Mrs. C. H. Stanley, president; American Woman's League, Orange, Mrs. J. F. Paxton, president; American Woman's League, Fullerton, Mrs. Carrie Ford, president; Art Study Club, Santa Ana, Miss Josephine Alexander, delegate; Placentia Round Table, Placentia, Mrs. J. P. Des Grange, president; Woman's Club, Fullerton, Mrs. G. H. Sherwood, president; Yorba Linda Federation, Yorba Linda, Mrs. Vernon and Mrs. Brooks, delegates.

Resolutions were adopted favoring a bill to appeal the Hetch-Hetchy grant to San Francisco; asking to have the Department of California History and Landmarks kept as a separate department in the district work; a bill to govern child labor; the Torrence land law; and a resolution of thanks to the Placentia Round Table for its hospitality.

Miss Helen Barry of Los Angeles, secretary of the Industrial Welfare Commission, was present and gave a talk on the line of work carried on by that commission.

Mrs. Newell of Placentia was elected to represent Orange county on the board for a school for mothercraft.

The meeting closed at 4 p.m. as scheduled, owing to the executive ability of the presiding officer, Mrs. Dutton. All present praised her ability, the hospitality of the hostess club and the beautiful decorations.

MAY BEGIN PAVING COUNTY ROAD INTO BAY CITY SHORTLY

Today the County Highway Commission is making a trip over the road between the Santa Ana-Huntington Beach road and Bay City, with a view to starting paving proceedings for that road in the near future. This road will join the road now completed at the point where it turns south to Huntington Beach. It will pass through Westminster and on to the county line at Bay City.

The commissioners were doubtful about the advisability of letting a contract for this road at this time because of the fact that it might not be completed in time for hauling of beets. However, it was seen that if work was not commenced until after the beet season it might be a year before the road was completed.

The matter was taken up with some of the people along the route, and all of them were anxious to have the road built as soon as possible, and with the disposition of the farmers to use make-shift roads it necessary to get the roads to the factories rather than have delays to the commission has practically concluded to call for bids at once. It is hoped, of course, that much of the road can be used throughout the beet hauling season, which lasts from August until November.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET
Emphatic denial of Petaluma eggs going into storage here at the rate of a car a day, consigned by a San Francisco broker. The eggs are coming here, but they are not being placed in storage, according to the contention of the operator looking after the local end of the business, and further, he claims that few will be placed in the coolers, dealers preferring to take a chance on getting good stock in May and June, thus shortening the season in which they have to pay storage and eliminating a few other small risks. The receipts of Petaluma eggs are still averaging better than a car a day. Eastern receipts are not as heavy, and even Eastern eggs arriving are going largely into consumption rather than storage. Yesterday arrivals totaled 619 cases. Prices in San Francisco were very firm at 22 cents. Chicago in the lowest market in the country, selling being at 17 cents, while

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB BACKACHE AND LUMBAGO RIGHT OUT

Rub Pain and Stiffness away with a small bottle of old honest St. Jacobs Oil

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a 25 cent bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right into the pain or ache, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone. Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the ache and pain right out of your back and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin. Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica and lame back misery so promptly!

IRVINE STATION CROSSING A TRAP

Santa Ana Bulletin: Talk about death traps, railroad crossings, automobiles, etc., but the most dangerous place for the traveling public in Orange county is the crossing at Irvine Station on the Santa Fe railroad. To anyone driving south the view of the track is shut off by a big warehouse and the railroad company should be compelled to put in a warning bell there. With the auto traffic toward

San Diego and our local travel to Laguna Beach, it is very evident that this death-trap nuisance should be abated. Saturday evening an automobile load of people came within a few feet of being run over at that crossing by a train, and those hair-breadth escapes are frequent at that point. The railroad commissioners should see that a signal bell is placed there.

IF CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH AND SICK

Look, Mother! If Tongue is Coated Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Advertisement.

Doings In Social and Club Circles

AT POLY HIGH

High School P-T. Association
Heard of Fine Work of Student Body

The Parent-Teacher Association of the High School met yesterday afternoon in the music room of Poly High School building. The Boys' Glee Club of the High School sang two very pleasing numbers, and kindly responded to an encore. The program was mostly given by the student body and was in charge of one of the committee, Miss Bell. The other members of the committee were Mrs. Yarnell and Mrs. S. M. Davis. Miss Elizabeth English read the story of "Miss Winslow's Dull Pupil." An essay was read by Miss Doris Hutchins on "The Kingdom of Shadows." Another essay on "Points of View" was read by Miss Annis Jewel. Raymond Adkinson, student body president, gave a very interesting talk on what the student body is doing, showing a very marked improvement over all previous years.

Mrs. W. B. Tedford, chairman of the committee to purchase a curtain for the music room, reported that part of the money had been contributed for that purpose but there was still more needed, and all those who have not yet contributed could still do so. She asked prompt action. The money can be handed to any of the committee, which includes Mrs. W. B. Tedford, Mrs. Wallace and Ernest Crosier Phillips. Mrs. F. H. McElree gave a report of the Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations which met April 11 at Buena Park.

The president appointed the following nominating committee: Mrs. Z. B. West, Mrs. Darnell and Prof. McMath. The committee in charge of the next meeting includes Mrs. J. E. Gowan, Mrs. W. H. Thomas and Miss Rhea. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served and all enjoyed the social hour. Misses Stella Hupp, Ardis Burns and Muriel Cravath assisted the committee in serving.

Literary Program

A very interesting literary program was given in the M. E. church South Wednesday afternoon. After songs, and prayer, Bible readings were discussed by Mrs. McNaught and Mrs. Titus gave a blackboard talk on Christian Stewardship. The talk was so well given that the ladies tried to express their pleasure by clapping of hands. Mrs. Vawter, Mrs. Kirven and Mrs. McNaught read interesting selections.

Important business followed the program.

FOR BRIDE-TO-BE

Miss Dora Mueller Honoree of Pleasant Event at Henry
Rohrs Home

A very charming affair was that which took place at the Rohrs home on Fairhaven avenue yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Henry Rohrs and Miss Minnie Rohrs being hostesses at a kitchen shower in honor of Miss Dora Mueller, who in May will become the bride of George Rohrs.

The hospitable home was artistically adorned with pink and white roses, the delicate Cecil Bruners giving a dainty touch of color.

In a merry guessing contest Mrs. Sophie Plinster proved the most clever and was awarded the first prize, Miss Catherine Schmetgen being content with the consolation.

Miss Hauschild of Lincoln, Neb., a house guest of Miss Hockemeyer, pleased with instrumental music. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in conversation and in viewing the many useful gifts received by the bride-to-be.

A unique feature of the shower was that there were practically no duplicates of gifts.

As the afternoon hours began to wane, the ladies were refreshed with a dainty three-course luncheon, served on individual trays, the pretty pink and white color scheme being carried out in the appetizing viands.

The guests of the afternoon besides the honoree were Mrs. Dr. Mueller, Mesdames Fred Rohrs, F. H. Rohrs, Will Rohrs, John Rohrs, Herman Bandick, Ellis Smith, Sophie Plinster, Henry Gerken, Will Merner, A. M. SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Restore Color, Gloss and Thickness

Hair that loses its color and lustre or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmothers made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair.

You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

FRATERNAL AID PRESENTS COMEDY

(By Staff Correspondent.)

ORANGE, April 17.—A gay evening was spent by members of the Fraternal Aid Association last evening, the feature of it being an entertainment given by one of four sections of the lodge which are at present engaged in a membership contest.

The watchwords, "Love, Charity, Friendship and Justice," are the titles of the four divisions, each of which has its leader. Points in the contest are awarded for new members, for attendance and for various forms of entertainment, such as singing solos, or giving readings, recitations, dialogues, sketches and the like.

Last evening the "Loves" were in charge, their offering being an amusing comedy sketch, a "Colored Wedding." The characters were appropriately blacked up and costumed, backing up their general appearance with a witty dialogue that kept the audience in delight.

Geo. A. Shoemaker as "Rev. Johnsing," Mrs. C. C. Youngs as "Miss Jones" and Mr. S. G. Unland as "Mistah Johnsing," were the three principal figures in the wedding.

Following the wedding, each of the entertainers gave a special number, some very good performances being rendered.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Mad Hermit," a three-reel Indian war drama, featuring Francis Ford and Grace Cunard, is being presented at the Lyric Theater this afternoon to a large matinee patronage. The same feature will also be presented tonight.

The location of the story is in the West during the period when the pioneers, assisted by Uncle Sam's soldiers, were successfully pushing their way into the Red Man's land and building up settlements that were later to become thriving cities.

Of course there are battles. The play opens up with a desperate fight between Indians, which ends in a hand-to-hand encounter between a scout and a brave, which incident plays such an important part in fashioning the rest of the action. It absorbs you—it thrills you, and while it is essentially a tragedy, the sadness is permeated with lively wit, delightful humor and a sense of justice in the outcome.

"Back to Broadway"

A very delightful and remarkably picturesque and realistic drama of the day is "Back to Broadway." The magnate came near being at his means' end and would have had to wander over the country as a tramp, though he had a big yacht out on the sea and millions in the bank, had not been discovered by a little man, a man who got him out of his predicament.

The management of Clune's Theater has selected "Back to Broadway" for Sunday only, and assures a fine evening to all who see it.

The Idler

Taken from the depths of poverty and brought up in luxury. How many might have done as this young man did. Could we stand prosperity? This question is often asked. How many of us would do as well as this young man did when given another chance? The answer is easily given when we see the picture and no one should lose the golden opportunity afforded on Saturday night only, at Clune's, when this extremely helpful and absorbing story is presented.

Noted Preacher Coming

Next Sunday
Rev. Wm. Spurgeon, D. D., of London, England, cousin of the late C. H. Spurgeon, will be in this city and will deliver two addresses. At 3 o'clock he will speak at a union meeting of all the churches at the First Baptist Church on "The Welsh Revival," and in the evening at 7:30 he will speak at the Zion's Evangelical Church with the theme, "The Hero of the Desert."

Of the first lecture the Monmouth (Ill.) Daily Review says: "Did you hear Dr. Spurgeon? His lecture on the Welsh Revival was a gem. As an orator he is among the top-notchers, and as a preacher—well, if his great cousin was any better, he certainly deserved his fame."

Of the other lecture Mr. Parker Stockdale, manager of the Merom (Ind.) Chautauqua, says: "The Rev. William Spurgeon delivered yesterday (Sunday) before our Chautauqua a great and glorious sermon lecture on 'Moses, the Hero of the Desert.' There were 5000 present and for over an hour the people sat spell-bound under the magnetic power of this eloquent English preacher. All were delighted, inspired and uplifted by the sermon."

The people of Santa Ana will do well to hear this cultivated and eloquent preacher. At each meeting a silver offering will be taken.

Hears of Uncle's Death

Word was received today by Mrs. C. L. Kerr, 837 Riverline, of the death of her uncle, Mr. T. D. Collins, of Nebraska, Forest county, Pa.

Mr. Collins was 83 years of age and was a multi-millionaire. He had been engaged in the lumber business all his life and was one of the largest donors to foreign missions in the United States. Mrs. Kerr's father died a year ago, and her uncle was his only brother. They had been partners in business all their lives.

An Evening of Readings

An attraction of unusual merit is offered for Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the First Christian church. Miss Winifred Roberts, under the auspices and with the assistance of the C. E. Intermediates, will give an evening's reading. The C. E. will furnish several musical numbers.

The public is invited to spend the evening with the young people as the program is one sure to be enjoyed. A silver offering will be taken at the door.

MISSION MEETINGLadies Heard of Presbyterian
Session—Admirable Program Given

The regular meeting of the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church was held Thursday afternoon. The meeting opened with a song followed by prayer for missionaries in the foreign fields, the reading of minutes, the roll call, the secretary's and treasurer's reports. The subject for study was "Freedmen."

After the matter of a pledge for the coming year was decided upon, the president, Mrs. H. A. Allen, who was in the chair, called for current events. Mrs. Marshall gave an interesting item about the number of children among freedmen who are becoming Christians and becoming soul winners among their own people. Miss Preble Drake gave the statement that while only about one percent of the total wealth of the United States is invested in church property, according to Dooker T. Washington, over eight per cent of the wealth of the negroes of the country is invested in churches. They have 35,000 churches with 3,700,000 members.

Mrs. Cranston gave as an item of news the fact that the roof is now on the new Spanish school building in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Blew was asked to give a report of the annual Presbyterian meeting held in Los Angeles last month. The report was an exceedingly interesting one, including a synopsis of a talk by John Baileon Shaw on "Peace."

The topic was then taken up, with Mrs. Willard, Mrs. Cranston and Mrs. Ebel as leaders. Scripture reading, 2 Cor. 4.

A duet was sung by Mrs. Willard and Mrs. Cranston, "The Master Stood in His Garden," and this was followed by some very interesting facts about the work among freedmen. An instrumental piece was given by Miss Sharpless. Miss Minnie C. Childs then came forward to give a report as delegate sent to the monthly meeting of the Presbyterian at Los Angeles on the first Monday in April. Miss Childs gave an interesting summary of the meeting. She reported that she had taken a suitcase full of roses from Tustin to the meeting and they were the only flowers there. They decorated the table and piano and were highly appreciated and were taken to Chinatown after the meeting.

Miss Childs spoke of one missionary of whom she heard who had been very influential in unbinding the feet of women in China, so that the men now prefer marrying women of large feet. The Tustin flowers were cordially welcomed and the Tustin delegates are requested to always bring them.

At the end of this report the meeting adjourned.

EDITORIAL

NEVER TOO LATE

California is not behind any other state in its thought and provision of means by which its young people are encouraged to make the most of themselves. Its school and institutions are the finest, and no doubt many of these young people will be heard from in various walks of life.

Perhaps it can be said that neither is it behind in its recognition of another class of citizens, who at least seem to be welcome in California. That class is composed of those who are past middle life. This is a very attractive class for those who are growing older, and many gray heads are observable on the streets, in the churches and around the ranch homes. Shall these older people come here to do away their remaining days in the sunshine? If there are those among them who are still ambitious, let them read the following quotation:

"Many of those of great mental power, who have given to the world literature that has lived, that has stirred and moulded the lives of men, did their best work and created their greatest masterpieces of mental effort after they had passed middle life. Bacon's greatest work took fifty years to mature. Longfellow wrote 'Hiawatha' at forty-eight, and Oliver W. Holmes gave us 'Songs in Many Keys' after he had passed his fifty-first birthday. Milton wrote 'Paradise Lost' between fifty-four and fifty-five. Defoe was within two years of sixty when 'Robinson Crusoe' was written. Sir Walter Scott wrote the stories which made him famous after the age of forty-six."

"The mind is like a new shovel. If it is performing no work, it is soon covered with rust, but if daily shoved through the sand of endeavor, it grows brighter, and the wear of years only makes it work all the keener." This thought is emphasized here for the benefit of those of whom it is so often said, "He (or she) is too old to do anything." But is it not also encouraging to the young? For they, too, must become old if they live long.

"Develop the head, the hand, the heart, the imagination, and let no future dreams elude thee" to the exclusion of the possibilities of the present."

TUSTIN TWELVE
AT HOEFER HOMEFormer Charter Member Was Welcome Guest at the Pleasant Meeting

The members of the Tustin Twelve were entertained by Mrs. Arthur Hoefer last Tuesday afternoon at her attractive home on Newport road.

Lovely pink roses were used in decorating in part and sweet peas were in abundance.

The ladies always take their fancy work to these afternoon meetings and a good many stitches are taken even during the pleasant conversation and on this occasion they were further entertained with music by Mrs. Chas. Johnson.

Mrs. Joe Skinner, a former charter member, now living in Los Angeles, was present Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. A. Schildmeyer and Miss Martha Schildmeyer, mother and sister of the hostess, assisted Mrs. Hoefer in serving an elaborate dinner. Among the good things were chicken pie, rice potatoes and hot rolls, ice cream with strawberries, angel's food, burnt sugar cake and coconut cake.

Those present besides the above were Mesdames Albert Fuller, Fred Poole, Chas. Artz, E. J. Cranston, Fred Moorhead, Ellis Smith, J. C. Stearns and J. O. House.

The McTaggart

The following are extracts from a letter just received from Mr. and Mrs. N. G. McTaggart, who started about two months ago on a trip around the world: "We left San Francisco, February 16, at 1 p.m., on a beautiful day. Had some stormy weather and reached Honolulu just a week later. We have a friend in the customs office there and he took a few hours off to go about with us. Honolulu was having a carnival, and on Monday celebrated Washington's birthday with a military parade and speeches and music later at the park. We secured a good seat and watched the parade. Regiments of native Hawaiians, Chinese, Japanese, Filipinos, negroes and Americans marched past with their various bands. The Hawaiian band was playing 'My hula, hula girl,' and they played well. Then came the cavalry and field pieces, packhorses and all the things that go with an army parade. The American band played 'The Star Spangled Banner' and 'America.' The flags of Hawaii and the United States were invariably carried side by side. After the parade was over we secured an automobile and driver for a trip around the island. First we took a trip to the Paoli, which is reached by seven miles of beautiful, scenic mountain road, every turn a wonder, and every scene a fresh delight. From the top you have a wonderful view of the surrounding country, mostly fields of sugar cane and pineapples."

"We visited Fort Shafter, drove past Diamond Head, Waikiki Beach and the aquarium, the coconut groves and down the principal streets of the city, visited a curio store and made some purchases. By this time we had to think of returning to the boat, which sailed at 5 o'clock. There we bade our friend good-bye, after a delightful day spent on a beautiful island that leaves a memory of happy singing birds, flowers and sunshine and riots of delicate color everywhere. Our only regret was that our stay was so short. We wished for a week, but since it could not be, were thankful for our one beautiful day and enjoyed it to the utmost."

Dinner Party
Mesdames D. P. Walters, Wm. Stearns and E. Gray of Fairhaven avenue, and Mesdames H. Rudolph and W. A. Ralph of Orange, were entertained at dinner on Wednesday by Mrs. E. C. Franzen in honor of Mrs. D. P. Walters, who is soon to leave her old neighborhood for Northern California.

LESS MEAT IF BACK AND KIDNEYS HURT

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush
Kidneys if Bladder
Bothers You

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delicious effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—Advertisement.

ANTY

Mr. Smith—"Good morning, Anty Drudge! Go right on up to the house. You'll find Mary busy over the wash tubs, but she don't seem to mind it any more since you told her about Fels-Naptha Soap. That reminds me! Mr. Jones was praising his boy up to me the other day. He said, 'He's all wool, you can bet.' I told him I shouldn't wonder, because I notice he shrinks from washing. Ha! Ha! But I couldn't say that if he used Fels-Naptha Soap, could I?"

Fels-Naptha Soap is the greatest help women can have, in doing their weekly washing and all their housework. It works without fuss or bother in cool or lukewarm water. Saves your time and strength because it does the hard part of the work for you.

Clothes washed with Fels-Naptha do not have to be hard-rubbed or boiled. Stains come out easily, dirt disappears. Use Fels-Naptha for everything about the home.

Buy it by the box or carton. Easy directions are on the Red and Green Wrapper.

OVER-SEA FLIGHT IN AUGUST, SAYS CURTISS

NEW YORK, April 17.—Glenn H. Curtiss, who is constructing Rodman Wanamaker's transatlantic hydro-aeroplane, states that he expects to have the craft completed early in June, and that the flight would probably be attempted early in August.

"The framework of the boat is already finished," said Mr. Curtiss. "A complete engine has been built for it, but it is possible that this will be used only in tests and that a new one will be built before the flight is attempted."
